

Ari A. Green
North Carolina State University
3267-B Calumet Drive, Raleigh, NC 27610
Phone: (916)213-9697
E-Mail: aagreen2@ncsu.edu

Education

Ph.D. in Public History, North Carolina State University
Concentrations: Historic Preservation, Digital History
Advisor:

M.A. in Public History, California State University, Sacramento, July 2020
Concentrations: African-American Public History, Urban History
Advisor: Dr. Lee Simpson and Dr. Paula Austin
Thesis: "New Gentrification: An Interdisciplinary Analysis of Sacramento's Erasure of Blackness Through Public Policy"

B.A. in History, California State University, Sacramento, May 2016
Concentrations: Pre-Credential, History
Advisor: Jeffrey Wilson, History Department Chair

Fellowships, Grants and Honors

2020 AMIA Diversity and Inclusion Fellowship Pilot Program
2020 California State University, Sacramento, Lawrence A. Brooks Conference Award
2020 California State University, Sacramento, Rose-Christensen Travel Award
2020 National Council on Public History, Graduate Student Travel Award
2018-2019 California State University, Sacramento, State University Grant
2018 California State University, Sacramento, Rose-Christensen Travel Award

Papers and Presentations

"The New Gentrification: A Thin Line Between Economic Development and Urban Displacement of Black People." National Council for Public History Annual Meeting, Atlanta, Georgia, March 19, 2020.

"Black Public History from Post-Emancipation to Neo-Emancipation" National Council for Public History Annual Meeting, Hartford, Connecticut, March 30, 2019.

Publications

"National Historic Landmark Nomination for Pond Farm Pottery", lead author, Anne Lindsay, co-authors: Ari Green, Anjelica Hall, Evan Mackall. Under review by California State Parks and National Park Service, Fall 2019.

Languages

French - Fair

Professional Associations

The Association of Moving Image Archivists, 2020

National Council on Public History, 2018-Present

Internship Experience:

September 2019 – May 2020: Central Public Library, The Sacramento Room

Digitization Intern

- Digitization Project Management
- Scan images, postcards, periodicals, ephemera, and city directories.
- Research and create metadata
- Promote digitized collections

June 2019 – August 2019: Center of Sacramento History

Archives Inventory Internship

- Evaluate, select, retrieve, and arrange materials
- Store and preserve perishable documents
- Process collections and create finding aides
- Encode manuscript finding aid for publishing on Online Archive California
- Encode finding aids into EAD format
- Arrange and rehouse collection

Current Employment, March 2017 – July 2020

Records Clerk, Weintraub Tobin

- Maintains and secures records in accordance with established firm policies and procedures.
- Receives and processes files for department filing and archiving at off-site storage.
- Researches the location of folders and documents upon request.
- Assists in the conversion of any incoming lateral client/matter files into the firm wide records management system.
- Processes obsolete records for destruction in accordance with the firm's record retention policy and established procedures.
- Maintain records of destruction activity for future usage.
- Assists in transferring client files as requested.
- Conduct conflict management checks.

Volunteer Experience:

September 2017 – April 2018: California State Railroad Museum

Library and Archives Volunteer

- Sort and file books, periodicals, photos, technical drawings, and maps using several different alpha-numerical protocols.

- Assist with digitizing maps.
- Assist with collecting and/or recoding written and computer data.
- Sleeve and prepare photographs.
- Assist with housekeeping to conserve and maintain Library and Archive materials and work environments.
- Trained Docent