

Devon L. Borgardt

Department of Sociology
334 1911 Building
Campus Box 8107
Raleigh, NC 27695-8107

Phone: 919-814-6561
Email: dlborgar@ncsu.edu

EDUCATION

Present North Carolina State University Graduate School
 M.A. Anthropology, Archaeology Concentration

2012 Wesley College of Dover Delaware
 B.A. History

RESEARCH INTERESTS

- Thesis work in studying Plantations of the Lower Cape Fear in North Carolina and creating an archaeological synthesis
- Using archaeology to discuss the lives of minorities

PRESENTATIONS

2018 Borgardt, Devon, A Cultural Shift; The Sally-Billy House (31HX125), at the North Carolina Office of State Archaeology Student Symposium, Raleigh, North Carolina

 Borgardt, Devon, From Plantation House to Tenant Farm: The Sally-Billy House Lot (31HX125), at the Southeastern Conference on Historic Sites Archaeology, Charleston, South Carolina, USA

2017 Borgardt, Devon, Searching for One Site and Finding Another: The Second Excavations at Charlestowne (31BW133), at the North Carolina Office of State Archaeology Symposium, Raleigh, North Carolina, USA

2016 Borgardt, Devon and Sherry Boyette, From Plantation to Tenant Farm: The Sally-Billy House Lot (31HX125), at the North Carolina Office of State Archaeology Symposium, Raleigh, North Carolina, USA

FIELD EXPERIENCE

- 2015 Heritage Archaeological Research Practice Field Schools, Scotland
- 10-day Phase III excavations, Isle of Mull, village abandoned due to Highland Clearances
 - 10-day Phase I, Blair Atholl, pedestrian survey, documenting, and mapping Wade's Road and features associated with Highland Clearances
- 2012 Jamestown Rediscovery, Williamsburg, VA
- Six week field school covering Phase III excavations and artifact conservation

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Present Teachers Assistant, Professor Emily McDowell, Introduction to Forensic Anthropology
- Archaeological Technician, Office of State Archaeology, Raleigh, North Carolina
- 2017 Archaeological Technician, Part Time, Office of State Archaeology, Raleigh, North Carolina
- 2017-2016 Archaeological Field Technician, Commonwealth Heritage Group, Tarboro, North Carolina