

MICHAEL BRINKMAN

Phone: (561) – 376 -7306
mbrinkm@ncsu.edu

1911 Building NCSU
10 Current Dr
Raleigh, NC 27606

EDUCATION

BS Florida State University May 2015
Sociology and Economics
Department of Social Science

GRADUATE COURSES TAKEN

Classical Theory, Applied Research, Theories of Delinquency, Research Methods in Sociology, Quantitative Sociological Analysis, Research on Crime and Deviance

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

“Student and Faculty Perceptions of Student Veterans” 2015
Florida State University, Tallahassee
Advisor: Dr. Doug Schrock

- Obtained IRB Approval
- Assisted in developing research questions
- Interviewed Students and Faculty
- Coded interview transcriptions
- Assisted in writing sections of a final academic paper

“Differential Learning and Delinquency” 2016
North Carolina State University, Raleigh

- Constructed a comprehensive literature review
- Tested various hypotheses using regression analysis

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistantship – Principles of Sociology 2015
Teaching Assistantship – Racial and Ethnic Relations 2015
Teaching Assistantship – Technology in Society and Culture 2016

PRESENTATIONS

Paper Presentation, “Music as Lifestyle,” 14th Annual Research Symposium, April 1st 2014.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Inequality
Crime Deviance and Social Control
Gender
Mental Health

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Pete – Mental Health Center
[Volunteer], 2014

RESEARCH SKILLS

Applications: STATA, SPSS, NVIVO, Qualtrics

AFFILIATIONS AND MEMBERSHIPS

American Sociological Association: Member 2015