

CURRICULUM VITAE
Caitlin (Cat) Flynn

Department of Sociology & Anthropology
North Carolina State University
Campus Box 8107, Raleigh, NC 27695

Email: crflynn@ncsu.edu
Office Phone: 919.515.2610
Mobile Phone: 217.553.6074

EDUCATION

- 2017 MS in Sociology, North Carolina State University
Thesis: "Cultural Capital in the French Language Classroom"
- 2012 B.A. (magna cum laude) in Linguistics and French, Cornell University
Honors Thesis: "Slurs, Euphemisms and Reclamation in the Queer Community"

ACADEMIC POSITIONS

- 2018- Graduate Instructor, Department of English, North Carolina State University
- 2017-2018 Graduate Teaching Assistant, Department of English, North Carolina State University
- 2016-2017 Graduate Research Assistant, Department of English, North Carolina State University
- 2014-2016 Graduate Teaching Assistant, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, North Carolina State University

AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION

Sociolinguistics, Second Language Acquisition, Qualitative Methods, Cultural Capital, Gender, Inequality, Linguistic Identity, Critical Discourse Analysis

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

- 2017 Cultural Capital in the French Language Classroom, Presented at SSS (Southern Sociological Society) Annual Meeting, Greenville, SC
- 2017 The Effects of Cultural Capital on Language Learning Motivation, Presented at SECOL (Southeast Conference on Linguistics) Annual Conference, Charleston, SC

2016 “The Only Reason I Travel”: Identity and Ideology in Folk Linguistics on YouTube, Presented at SECOL (Southeast Conference on Linguistics) Annual Conference, New Orleans, LA

AFFILIATIONS/MEMBERSHIPS

2017-2018 Southern Sociological Society