

Brooke Erin Graham

begraham@ncsu.edu

North Carolina State University
Department of Sociology and Anthropology
1911 Building, Office 327

Education

North Carolina State University

Ph.D. Sociology, anticipated: 2022

- An intersectional Analysis of Queer Partners' Distribution of Unpaid Labor in the Home

M.S. Sociology, 2020

- Queer-ly Unequal: LGBT+ Students' Experiences with Social Support and Resiliency in Education

University of North Carolina Wilmington

B.A. Sociology, magna cum laude: 2017

- Minors: Women and Gender Studies, English

Research Specializations

qualitative intersectional methods; cognitive unpaid labor; social support, resiliency, and education; queer theory

Teaching Experiences

- Instructor of Record: Social Problems, 2019-2020; Sociology of Families 2020-2021
- Teaching Assistant: Sociology of the Family; Classical Theory; Human Behavior; Sociology of Mental Illness; Sociology of Education

Publications

Graham, Brooke Erin. 2019. "Queerly Unequal: LGBT+ Students and Mentoring in Higher Education." Social Sciences 8 (171):1-19.

In Progress: Bowen, Sarah. Mycek, Mari Kate. "Food Work and Changes in the Food System." Edited Volume.

Conferences

- Southern Sociological Society, April 2020
  - "Queering Sociological Approaches: Research, Teaching, and Beyond" with Victoria Kurdyla
- Southern Sociological Society, April 2019
  - "Queer Students and Mentoring Relationships in Higher Education"
- North Carolina Sociological Association, February 2019

- “Queering Sociological Research: A Panel Discussion on Queer Methodologies” with Victoria Kurdyla, and Heather Johnson
- Southeast Ecological Community Psychology Conference, December 2018
  - “Challenging or Conforming: Queer Students and Mentoring at a University in the Rural Southeast”

Honors and Awards

2017 John H Scalf Jr. Outstanding Sociology Award

Organizations and Certifications

- Sociological Student Government Association
  - President 2019-2020
  - Vice President 2018-2019
- American Sociological Association, 2017- present
- Southern Sociological Society, 2017-present
- Alpha Kappa Delta Sociological Honor Society
- Social/Behavioral Research Course Training
- Responsible Conduct in Research Training