

Casey L. Strange
clstrang@ncsu.edu

Education

Ph.D., Sociology, North Carolina State University, expected 2018
Concentration: Food and the Environment

M.A., Sociology, University of North Carolina at Greensboro, 2012
Thesis: An Approach to the Occupational Ideology and Identity of Informal Cellular Minutes Vendors in Bogota, Colombia.

B.A., Sociology, Spanish minor, University of North Carolina at Greensboro, 2009
Honors Thesis: Immigrant Identity: A Comparative Perspective on the Impact of Immigration on the Individual Identity
Concentrations: Criminology, Social Problems in a Global Society

Research Experience

Program Evaluator, 2016
Juntos, NCSU

Evaluating the impact of Juntos, a four component educational program that promotes college attendance for Latino high school students in NC, for students and their families in NC

Analyst, Summer Internship 2016
NCGrowth, UNC

Providing technical assistance in the form of market research through surveys and focus groups to identify a client base and fine tune product and social media marketing to reach this demographic

Bilingual Graduate Research Assistant, 2014-2015
Voices into Action, NCSU

Surveying Spanish-speaking Latina mothers and caregivers in central North Carolina about their experiences related to feeding their families and motherhood

Standardized Patient Coordinator, 2013
UNC-School of Medicine

Managed just over 100 part-time employees who presented for teaching and research encounters with medical students as well as coordinating research activities in a team-based project setting aimed at evaluating student and patient interaction quality

Bilingual Graduate Research Assistant, 2011-2012

Refugee and Immigrant Network of Guilford with the University of North Carolina at Greensboro
Completing with a literature review and the field work (interviewing/surveying community members about community assets) for a community asset mapping project based around immigrant and refugee resources in Guilford County, NC

Teaching Experience

Graduate Student Instructor, 2014-2016
North Carolina State University

Courses: Jobs and Work, Social Problems and Introduction to Sociology

Grader, Summer and Fall 2014
North Carolina State University

Course: Introduction to Sociology

Teaching and Research Assistant, 2013-2014

North Carolina State University
Course: Social Psychology

Co-Instructor, Fall 2012
University of North Carolina at Greensboro
Course: Foundations for Learning, a university studies and study skills course

Teaching and Research Assistant, 2010-2012
University of North Carolina at Greensboro
Courses: Global Social Problems, Sociology of Globalization, Classical Social Theory

Tutor, 2007-2009
University of North Carolina at Greensboro
Courses: Introduction to Sociology, Global Social Problems, Introductory and Intermediate Spanish Language and Conversation

Presentations and Publications

Strange, Casey (2016). Framing the Monarch Butterfly. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the Rural Sociological Society, Toronto, ON in August 2016.

Casey Strange (2016). Framing in the Movement to Protect the Monarch Butterfly. Poster Presented at the North Carolina Sea Grant Graduate Training Symposium, New Bern, NC in April 2016.

Strange, Casey (2016). Frame Shifts in the Movement to Protect the Monarch Butterfly. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the Eastern Sociological Society, Boston, MA in March 2016.

Strange, Casey (2015). Income or Conscience: What Decides Who Engages in Green Consumption? Paper presented at the annual meeting of the Eastern Sociological Society, New York, New York in February 2015.

Strange, Casey and Ramirez, Camilo (2014). Typing and Street Vendors: Exploring the sub-groups of vendors and their characteristics. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the Eastern Sociological Society, Baltimore, Maryland in February 2014.

Strange, Casey (2012). An Approach to the Occupational Ideology and Identity of Informal Cellular Minutes Vendors in Bogota, Colombia. Preliminary results presented at the annual meeting of the Eastern Sociological Society, New York, New York in February 2012.

Westervelt, Sandra D., and Kimberly J. Cook, with Casey Strange. 2012. "Chapter 3: Introducing the Exonerates." Pp. 29-56 in Life after Death Row, by S.D. Westervelt and K.J. Cook. New Brunswick, N.J.: Rutgers University Press.

Awards and Honors

NCSU Graduate School Minority Recruitment Scholarship, 2013-2014
Shivers Alumni Scholarship UNCG, 2010-2011
Student Excellence Award UNCG, Spring 2009
Membership in Phi Beta Delta International Scholars Honor Society granted Spring 2009
Golden Chain Honor Society of UNCG, Fall 2008
Membership in Alpha Kappa Delta, the International Sociology Honor Society granted Spring 2008

Skills and Qualifications

Microsoft Office Suite, NVivo, Atlas.ti, SPSS (PASW) 14.0-22.0, STATA 11-14, Blackboard, Moodle
Completed Tutor Training Level 1 and 2, Program Certification by College Reading and Learning Association (CRLA), 2008

Languages

Native English                      Speaker Professional Fluency in Spanish                      Intermediate Portuguese