

- > 4,500 students
- > 600+ faculty and staff
- > 38,600 alumni
- > 50+ undergraduate majors, 40+ undergraduate minors, 12 master's degrees, 5 Ph.D. programs, 3 dual-degree honors programs and 4 graduate certificate programs
- > A campus leader in students who study abroad

- > Houses 4 community-oriented institutes and centers that further NC State's land-grant mission
- > Supports innovative programs such as the Language and Life Project at NC State, Public Safety Leadership Institute and the Psychoeducational Clinic
- > Pace-setter for interdisciplinary collaboration

- > $33.2M in sponsored research in past 5 years
- > 77% increase in research expenditures since FY '10
- > 120 endowments valued at $21M in FY '18
- > Private fundraising in FY '18: $4.2M
- > Think and Do the Extraordinary fundraising campaign progress: $27.6M (campaign goal: $35M)

Academic Areas

- > Communication
- > English
- > Foreign Languages and Literatures
- > History
- > Interdisciplinary Studies
- > Philosophy and Religious Studies
- > Psychology
- > School of Public and International Affairs
  - Political Science
  - Public Administration
- > Social Work
- > Sociology and Anthropology

By the Numbers

- > Second largest college at NC State
- > 40% of undergrads earn Dean's List honors
- > 40+ student organizations
- > 11 distinguished professors
- > 6 endowed faculty chairs

Think and Do

Institutes and Centers:

- > Center for Family and Community Engagement
- > Forensic Sciences Institute
- > Genetic Engineering and Society Center
- > Institute for Nonprofits
- > Khayrallah Center for Lebanese Diaspora Studies

Initiatives:

- > Critical Languages Training Center
- > Humanities Extension Project
- > The Language and Life Project at NC State
- > Psychoeducational Clinic
- > Public Safety Leadership Initiative

Research that Matters

- > Groundbreaking research in digital humanities
- > Faculty fellowships: Jefferson Science Program, Fulbright Scholar Program, Guggenheim Foundation, American Council of Learned Societies, Institute for Advanced Study and National Humanities Center
- > Student researchers who've earned Fulbright, Boren, Goldwater and Gilman fellowships